Dear Court Clerk:

We are having some difficulty communicating with your office. We are returning service within 72 hours of receipt of the most recent correspondence we have received.

We wish to make it clear that:

1. We are addressing the United States District Court for Alaska, as captioned, and no other;
2. We are not entering any Motions and wish you to withdraw any that you have posted to the referenced case in error;
3. We are seeking arbitration service from the United States District Court for Alaska operating in its Article III capacity to settle a specific performance claim made by a State Citizen against two Municipal United States OFFICERS in her employment.
